Syria Narrative Tracker www.syrianpulse.org

Daily reports · 27 September 2026

Daily report · 27 September 2026

Syria Narrative Tracker · as of the last update, 27 September 2026, 22:13 UTC

Contents

1. The day at a glance
2. What people said
3. Sources and method

1. The day at a glance

↑ Contents

Mixed Outlets emphasize security victories, economic initiatives and religious-cultural recovery. The public shows deep divisions: strong support for Islamic identity restoration and security operations, but widespread anger over land confiscation, low wages, and high living costs. Ordinary people express hope for the nation's future alongside frustration with governance and economic hardship. Sports coverage generates warm regional solidarity.

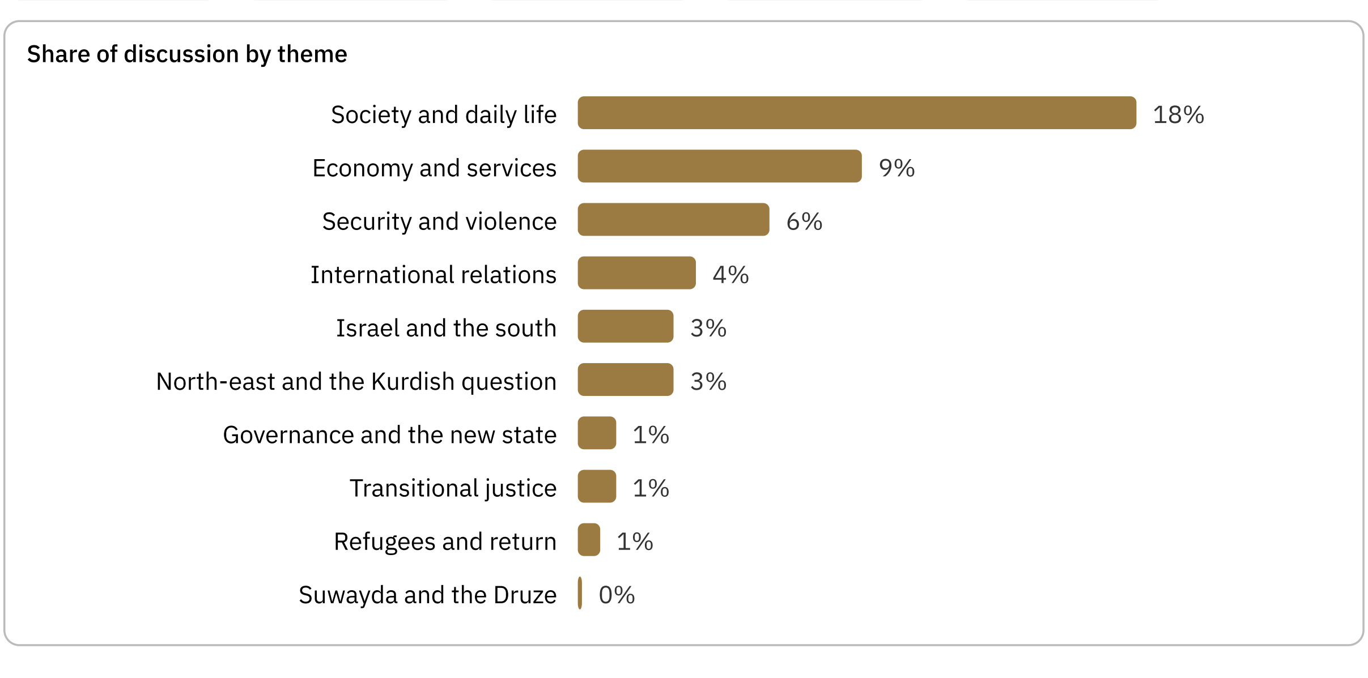
2. What people said

↑ Contents

The day in numbers

Mostly neutral	Leaning positive	48	1,544	5
People's tone	Outlets' tone	stories followed	post analyses	updates

Share of discussion by theme



The day's stories

1. Religious Education and Islamic Identity Celebration Society and daily life · People: strongly positive · Outlets: strongly positive · 21% of the discussion
State outlets and public comments celebrate the recovery of Islamic practice and education: Quranic recitation events at the Umayyad Mosque, prayer gardens in schools in Deir ez-Zor, and vocational training in Idlib. These are framed as restoration of dignity and religious freedom after war.
2. Turkish Visitors' Emotional Return to Syria: Ottoman Heritage and Reconciliation Society and daily life · People: strongly positive · Outlets: strongly positive · 14% of the discussion
Turkish YouTube creator Talha Uğurluel posted a highly viewed video (80+ hours of engagement) about returning to Damascus after 15 years, celebrating Ottoman heritage sites, Umayyad Mosque prayer, and Syrian stability. Public response from Turkish and Turkish-speaking audiences was overwhelmingly emotional and positive.
3. Syrian Athletes' International Achievements: MMA Fighter and Football Representation Society and daily life · People: strongly positive · Outlets: strongly positive · 10% of the discussion
Syrian MMA athlete Hamzeh al-Haj Ali reached the world number one ranking in IMMAF, becoming the first Syrian to achieve this. State outlets and independent media celebrate the achievement. Separately, opposition outlet reports on Spanish football victory in Euro Nations League and footballer Mbappé injury, as well as Syria–Jordan match-ups; public comments express cross-border regional solidarity in sports.
4. Regional Sports Solidarity: Syria-Jordan Football Match Society and daily life · People: strongly positive · Outlets: strongly positive · 10% of the discussion
Syria and Jordan drew 1-1 in a friendly match. Poor broadcast quality disrupted viewing, but the result was seen as positive preparation for the Asian Cup. Both countries' fans exchanged warmth and expressed regional brotherhood.
5. Sorcery and Fraud Network Arrests: Strong Public Support for Law Enforcement Security and violence · People: strongly positive · Outlets: strongly positive · 9% of the discussion
Outlets report arrests of a sorcery and fraud network in Jarablus; public comments overwhelmingly approve of law enforcement action and call for harsh punishment, including death penalty. Commenters frame sorcerers as dangerous societal threats causing psychological and financial harm to vulnerable people.
6. Land Confiscation and Property Rights Disputes in Rural Damascus Economy and services · People: strongly negative · Outlets: strongly negative · 9% of the discussion
Residents of Qudssiya and surrounding areas have protested the Abyat Hills and Sham View real estate projects, claiming the land was expropriated from them. The company denies legal responsibility and is filing lawsuits against protesters, while officials held public dialogues framing expropriation as legally necessary.
7. Arrest of Sorcery and Fraud Network in Jarablus: Public Approval of Law Enforcement Security and violence · People: strongly positive · Outlets: strongly positive · 9% of the discussion
State media reports on law enforcement's successful arrest of a sorcery and fraud network operating in Jarablus (ANHA , Halab Today). The operation is portrayed as protecting citizens from exploitation and harmful practices.
8. Syria's Crime Prevention Strategy and International Engagement at UN Congress International relations · People: mostly neutral · Outlets: leaning positive · 8% of the discussion
Syrian Interior Minister Anas Khattab leads a delegation to the 15th UN Crime Congress in Abu Dhabi, announcing a five-year national strategy (2026-2031) for crime prevention and criminal justice. The delegation includes senior judicial and security officials, and meetings cover bilateral cooperation with UAE, Kuwait, Malaysia, and planned partnerships with UNODC and Interpol. State outlets present this as evidence of institutional reform and Syria's return to international standing.
9. Syria at UN 15th Crime Congress in Abu Dhabi: Diplomatic Re-engagement International relations · People: strongly positive · Outlets: strongly positive · 7% of the discussion
State media extensively covers Interior Minister Anas Khattab's delegation to the 15th UN Crime Congress in Abu Dhabi, highlighting Syria's commitment to rule of law, human rights protection, and professional policing (SANA , Al-Ikhbariya , ; Levant24 , ; Shaam News ,).
10. Russia-Kurdish Relations: Skepticism and Autonomy Concerns North-east and the Kurdish question · People: strongly negative · Outlets: leaning negative · 7% of the discussion
Turkish-language YouTube comments on Russian Foreign Minister Lavrov's statements about Russia-Kurdish cooperation in Syria reveal significant skepticism. Commenters argue Russia betrayed Kurds in Afrin, Serê Kanî (Ras al-Ayn), and Gre Spe (Tell Tamer), and warn that Russia abandoned Assad after initial support. Some accuse Russian and Turkish leadership of playing games with Kurdish autonomy.
11. Israeli Military Activity and Golan Tensions: Surveillance and Cross-Border Operations Israel and the south · People: leaning negative · Outlets: leaning negative · 7% of the discussion
Opposition outlets report continued Israeli military reconnaissance and activity including drone surveillance over Idlib and documented tracker updates on Israeli incursions, raids, and property destruction (Levant24 ,). State media reports on Golan Heights apple harvests in occupied areas.
12. Syrian Hajj Lottery 2026-2027: Public Disputes Over Selection Fairness Society and daily life · People: strongly negative · Outlets: leaning negative · 5% of the discussion
State TV announced hajj lottery results for the 1448 AH season (2026-2027) at Euphrates University in Deir ez-Zor. Results drew immediate public criticism: commenters question why certain birth years (e.g., 1972–April cutoff, 1965–January cutoff) were accepted while others were excluded, and express frustration that elderly applicants were largely excluded despite greater spiritual urgency. Some call the lottery 'unjust' and request clearer criteria.
13. Damascus Urban Renewal, Tourism Initiatives, and Symbolic Reopenings Economy and services · Outlets: strongly positive · 4% of the discussion
State outlets report on tourism sector initiatives: Syria Travel Show 2026 with 11 countries, Latakia and Aleppo airport rehabilitation, and the launch of 'Touristech' platform at Aleppo Citadel for interactive tourism experiences. These are framed as national recovery and economic opportunity.
14. Israeli Military Activity and Golan Heights Tensions: Ongoing Cross-Border Operations Israel and the south · People: leaning negative · Outlets: leaning negative · 4% of the discussion
Outlets document continued Israeli military incursions into southern Syria, particularly Golan Heights and Rural Damascus, including airstrikes, ground operations, and checkpoint establishments. Syria demands Israeli withdrawal; international voices (Saudi Arabia, Tunisia, Turkey) condemn violations of Syrian sovereignty. Levant24 tracks incidents; US-led coalition drones surveilled Idlib for six days.
15. ISIS Cell Dismantling: Law Enforcement Success Security and violence · People: strongly positive · Outlets: strongly positive · 4% of the discussion
State security forces announced the dismantling of a multi-provincial ISIS cell operating from Raqqa, with four leaders arrested and members captured in Aleppo, Idlib and Homs. The cell had carried out kidnappings, planted explosives, and committed assassinations, with plans for further attacks.
16. 2026-2027 Hajj Lottery Results and Allocations Society and daily life · People: leaning positive · Outlets: strongly positive · 4% of the discussion
State outlets announce hajj lottery results for 2026-2027 season, detailing accepted age cohorts and special allocations including presidential grants and charity slots (Enab Baladi , Waqf ministry sources). Over 71,000 registered for the lottery.
17. Economic Hardship: Wages and Cost of Living Concerns Economy and services · People: strongly negative · Outlets: leaning negative · 4% of the discussion
Videos interviewing ordinary Syrians about wages reveal deep hardship: workers earn 75,000–150,000 pounds for grueling hours, housing costs are prohibitive, and businesses blame rent, electricity and fuel for inability to raise wages. Commenters see this as the bitter fruit of the new post-Assad government.
18. Historical Grievances and Migration: Syrian Diaspora Sentiment Society and daily life · People: leaning negative · Outlets: strongly negative · 4% of the discussion
Public comments express deep historical grievances about Syria's past, including references to executions, massacres, and sectarian violence under previous regimes. Some mention Syrian migrants' experiences abroad and mixed feelings about return.
19. Arrest of Sorcery and Fraud Network in Jarablus: Law Enforcement Action Security and violence · People: strongly positive · Outlets: strongly positive · 4% of the discussion
Syrian security forces arrested a network operating sorcery and fraud schemes in Jarablus, northern Aleppo countryside. Public comments celebrate the arrests and call for tough justice, with some demanding capital punishment. Commenters recognize the operators from prior YouTube content and express relief that the network has been shut down. Sentiment reflects both religious opposition to magic and concern for vulnerable victims.
20. Voluntary Refugee Returns from Northern Camps Refugees and return · People: mostly neutral · Outlets: leaning positive · 3% of the discussion
State and opposition outlets report a new convoy of 263 families voluntarily returning from northern Syrian camps to their original hometowns in Damascus, Rural Damascus, Hama, and Aleppo. The operation is coordinated with the UN and humanitarian organizations, signaling progress in internal displacement resolution.
21. Syria's Diplomatic Re-engagement: UN Conference and International Cooperation International relations · People: mostly neutral · Outlets: strongly positive · 3% of the discussion
State media extensively covers Syria's Interior Minister heading a delegation to the UN's 15th Crime and Criminal Justice Conference in Abu Dhabi, emphasizing state-building, rule of law, and human rights protection. The delegation includes senior justice officials. Opposition outlets also report on Syrian leaders' diplomatic efforts and international meetings.
22. Land Confiscation and Abyat Hills Project: Ongoing Rural Damascus Protests Governance and the new state · People: strongly negative · Outlets: mostly neutral · 3% of the discussion
Rural Damascus residents continue protesting against land expropriation for the 'Abyat Hills' and 'Shaam View' projects, demanding compensation and government review of confiscation decisions. Outlets report periodic dialogue sessions between residents and security officials, while residents dispute compensation values and claim the state is not protecting their land rights.
23. Arrest of Former Regime Officers over War Crimes and Torture Transitional justice · Outlets: strongly positive · 3% of the discussion
Security forces arrested former Brigadier Jaber Mahrez Ibrahim (138th Air Defense Brigade commander) accused of torturing child Hamza al-Khatib, and arrested Colonel Khaldoun Hussein Mubarak (MiG-29 pilot) for war crimes. State media frames these as accountability steps; Deir ez-Zor held a memorial for 2012 massacre victims.
24. Petroleum Company Denials and Corruption Concerns Economy and services · People: leaning negative · Outlets: mostly neutral · 3% of the discussion
Opposition outlets and YouTube analysis videos discuss a $110 million petroleum embezzlement case, with the state petroleum company initially denying allegations, then acknowledging the issue. Public YouTube commenters debate whether this reflects systemic corruption or a government successfully uncovering and prosecuting fraud. One analyst frames the investigation as evidence of anti-corruption will; others see it as confirmation of endemic theft.
25. Foreign Bank Investment and Economic Recovery Initiatives Economy and services · People: leaning negative · Outlets: leaning positive · 2% of the discussion
State media reports Syria's Central Bank expects over $1 billion in foreign capital for new banks, with licensing criteria emphasizing financial solvency and foreign investor protections (60% capital retention in foreign currency). The government also highlights tourism and trade agreements (with Azerbaijan, Romania, Iraq) as recovery drivers.
26. Economic Hardship: Wages, Food Prices, and Export Concerns Economy and services · People: strongly negative · Outlets: mostly neutral · 2% of the discussion
YouTube commenters express concern about wages, agricultural exports, and food affordability. Commenters note that olive and cotton production is being exported while local wages remain too low to afford basic goods. Some express fear that oil prices will rise due to international instability or that government officials lack accountability.
27. Economic Hardship, Inflation, and Middle Class Collapse Economy and services · People: strongly negative · Outlets: strongly negative · 2% of the discussion
Independent and opposition outlets report on Syria's economic crisis: middle class on the brink of poverty, liquidity shortages affecting fuel and commodity prices, olive oil production high but unaffordable for ordinary Syrians, and housing speculation with prices around $350/m² creating affordability crises. Public comments reflect deep frustration over inability to purchase basic goods despite salaries.
28. Israeli Military Shelling in Southern Quneitra Israel and the south · Outlets: mostly neutral · 2% of the discussion
Israeli forces conducted artillery strikes on agricultural land near Kodana and Breqa in southern Quneitra, with at least five shells targeting the area near Kodana dam. Outlets reported the incident with varying urgency; no casualties were reported. This is part of ongoing Israeli military activity documented by Levant24's tracker.
29. Kurdish Language Constitutional Recognition Campaign North-east and the Kurdish question · People: strongly negative · Outlets: leaning negative · 2% of the discussion
A taekwondo coach affiliated with Rudaw said the team will raise their school banner in Kurdish and defend Kurdish rights in the 'new Syria.' A Kurdish video discusses educational placements for Kurds and constitutional issues. Comments in Kurdish express frustration that Damascus is erasing Kurdish-specific programs and the autonomous administration's achievements.
30. Syrian Petroleum Company Denies $110 Million Embezzlement Claims Economy and services · Outlets: leaning positive · 2% of the discussion
State media and opposition outlets report that Syrian Petroleum Company issued clarifications denying embezzlement of $110 million and clarifying that the figure represents an initial damage estimate, not confirmed losses. The company states contracts were signed under exceptional circumstances during recovery of eastern oil fields, and investigations remain ongoing. Inspection authority official praised the company's positive role.
31. Iraq-Syria Trade and Energy Cooperation Economy and services · Outlets: leaning positive · 2% of the discussion
Syria and Iraq agreed to ease cross-border trade and movement. Syrian Customs and Iraqi border authorities discussed streamlining transit procedures. Iraq began receiving US gasoline via Syria in an overland route establishing a potential two-way energy corridor.
32. Land Confiscation Protests: Abyat Hills and Sham View Projects Escalate Governance and the new state · Outlets: strongly negative · 1% of the discussion
Residents of Qudsaya and surrounding Rural Damascus protested against the 'Abyat Hills' and 'Sham View' projects, rejecting construction on expropriated land and asserting landowners' rights. Outlets report protesters entered and occupied offices of both projects in Qudsaya, demanding cancellation of the land seizure. Disputes reflect broader property rights grievances post-Assad.
33. Kurdish Language Constitutional Recognition: Lawyers and Civil Society Campaign North-east and the Kurdish question · Outlets: leaning positive · 1% of the discussion
Kurdish lawyers in Qamishli and civil society groups are pushing for constitutional recognition of Kurdish language in Syria. Russian Foreign Minister Lavrov, during media engagement, stated Russia is ready to support Kurdish rights if requested and denied any language ban. Official framing emphasizes Syria's commitment to minority rights and coordinated international support.
34. Detention of Former Air Force Pilots for War Crimes and Bombing Campaigns Transitional justice · Outlets: leaning positive · 1% of the discussion
Outlets report the arrest of 16 former Assad-era pilots and officers over bombing campaigns and war crimes (Levant24 , Google News ,). One specific case involves pilot Khaldoun Hussein Mubarak, arrested in Latakia countryside after being missing for years.
35. Kurdish Language Constitutional Recognition: Lawyers' Campaign for Official Status North-east and the Kurdish question · Outlets: leaning positive · 1% of the discussion
Kurdish and opposition outlets report lawyers in Qamishlo and Qamishli pushing for constitutional recognition of Kurdish as an official language, arguing current national-language status is insufficient (Kurdistan24 English , North Press). Simultaneously, outlets report Russia's Lavrov denying Syria has banned Kurdish and offering support (Levant24 , Rudaw).
36. Economic Hardship: Wage Arrears and Currency Collapse Economy and services · People: leaning negative · Outlets: strongly negative · 1% of the discussion
Opposition outlets report widespread wage payment delays and currency devaluation affecting public sector workers (Zaman al-Wasl ,). Syrian petroleum company and airline staff face months of unpaid salaries, while the dollar rises and purchasing power collapses.
37. Syrian Petroleum Company Denies $110 Million Embezzlement Claims Economy and services · Outlets: leaning positive · 1% of the discussion
State and opposition media report the Syrian Petroleum Company's denial of embezzlement allegations (SANA , Al-Ikhbariya , Enab Baladi , Zaman al-Wasl ,). The company clarifies its contracting mechanisms in response to investigation authority praise.
38. Arrest of Former Assad-Era Pilots for War Crimes and Bombing Campaigns Transitional justice · People: mostly neutral · Outlets: leaning positive · 1% of the discussion
Syrian Counter-Terrorism Directorate arrested nine former Assad-era pilots, including three brigadier generals, in Latakia on charges of bombing campaigns against Syrian towns. One pilot, Khaldoun Hussein Mubarak, who ejected near Saraqib in 2020, was captured after years in hiding. Outlets frame this as accountability and rule of law.
39. Syrian MMA Fighter Leads Global Rankings Society and daily life · Outlets: strongly positive · 1% of the discussion
State outlets celebrate Syrian MMA fighter Hamza al-Hajj Ali's achievement in reaching the top of the International Mixed Martial Arts Federation (IMMAF) global rankings, becoming the first Syrian to do so (Al-Ikhbariya , Halab Today , ANHA).
40. Weapons Depot Explosions and Military Restructuring Questions Security and violence · Outlets: leaning negative · 1% of the discussion
Independent outlets report 18 explosions at weapons depots across Syria between December 2024 and September 2026, with only one confirmed as a military strike. Nine incidents lack public explanation, and five occurred in early September 2026, killing at least 30 people. Outlets raise questions about ammunition storage, war remnants, possible sabotage, and military restructuring.
41. Kurdish Language Constitutional Recognition Campaign North-east and the Kurdish question · Outlets: leaning positive · 1% of the discussion
Kurdish-focused outlets and forums document lawyers and civil society in Qamishli organizing for constitutional recognition of Kurdish as an official language (beyond current national language status). A conference was held discussing women's role in preserving Kurdish and legal/educational pathways to guarantee linguistic rights. North-east administration outlet ANHA reports on these initiatives.
42. Rojava University Integration: Concerns Over Centralization and Autonomy Rights North-east and the Kurdish question · Outlets: leaning negative · 1% of the discussion
Kurdish outlets report Rojava University's concerns about integration with Syria's Ministry of Higher Education, warning of centralized decision-making that ignores regional specificity and student voice (ANHA ; North Press). University demands democratic, decentralized management with protection of mother-tongue education rights.
43. MTN Denies Data Breach: Clarifies Employee Dismissals Economy and services · Outlets: mostly neutral · 1% of the discussion
Opposition outlets report MTN's denial of subscriber data leak allegations and explanation of staff dismissals (Enab Baladi , Syria TV). Company provides clarification on security and personnel actions.
44. Electricity Crisis in Qamishli: Private Generators Shutting Down Due to Fuel Price Surge Economy and services · Outlets: strongly negative · 1% of the discussion
Kurdish outlets report that most private electricity subscription generators have ceased operations in Qamishli due to dramatic increase in diesel prices, leaving neighborhoods in near-complete darkness despite some grid supply (North Press ,).
45. Arrest of Former Regime Air Defense Commander over Child Torture Transitional justice · Outlets: strongly positive · 1% of the discussion
Internal Security Forces arrested Brig. Gen. Jaber Mahrez Ibrahim, former commander of the 138th Air Defense Brigade, over allegations of torturing child Hamza al-Khatib. Early investigations showed he issued orders for killings, arrests, and suppression of demonstrators during the previous regime.
46. Druze Sectarian Tensions: Disputed Video and Sectarian Incitement Concerns Suwayda and the Druze · Outlets: leaning positive · 0% of the discussion
Opposition outlet Shaam News reports Sheikh Motea al-Baatin denying attribution of a leaked video to the Druze community and describing the video's publisher as a criminal. The report emphasizes Druze cultural values of honor and their integration into Syrian society.
47. Water Infrastructure Maintenance in Aleppo: Planned Service Interruptions Economy and services · Outlets: leaning positive · 0% of the discussion
Opposition outlet reports water utility project in Aleppo replacing worn main balance line in partnership with ZOA organization to improve water pressure and reduce loss (Halab Today). Implementation requires temporary water cuts for affected neighborhoods.
48. Weapons Depot Explosions and Military Storage Concerns Security and violence · Outlets: leaning negative · 0% of the discussion
Independent outlets reported a series of weapons depot explosions across Syria, raising questions about ammunition storage practices, war remnants handling, possible sabotage, and military restructuring oversight.

3. Sources and method

↑ Contents

Analysis generated automatically by an AI model from public posts. It describes what is being said, not what is true. Individuals are never named, quoted or linked.

Follow us The daily report every morning, and the stories Syrians are talking about, in your feed.

Follow on X · Follow on Facebook